Even with this class being completely asynchronous, he did an excellent job! He always did what he could to make sure everyone succeeded and made every quiz/assignment fair.

Erick Axxe was a great instructor. He was very well organized and gave just the right amount of work and challenged me just enough. I learned a great deal in this course.

The instructor has somewhat of a monotone voice so the recorded lectures were a bit mundane and hard to stay interest in. However the other videos and readings were very helpful.

I loved Erick's class. It was asynchronous, and I really love the types of content he put together for the class. it wasn't overbearing or overwhelming, and he is also very receptive to student feedback. Grading was also fair in the sense that if there was a commonly missed question, some points were awarded back and a full explanation of the answer was given. I learned about sociology on a real life scale rather than just terminology

Very unorganized!!!

I genuinely enjoyed this class and it caused me to think outside of the box. Erick Axxe taught the information well and was very accommodating to our feedback throughout the semester.

Erick was extremely helpful throughout the semester and the most cognizant of the pandemic and its affect on students throughout the semester through his course planning, as it was all spread out very evenly. Even though this was only a gen-ed for me, Erick made the course fun and engaging. Great professor!

For this being an all online class, the class was super engaging and informative. While it was a lot of reading, all content was very intentional. I really liked that this professor listened to our feedback about content format and course load and adjusted based on our feedback. They also gave feedback on quizzes regularly, which was very helpful. Overall I would totally recommend this professor's class to other students because they did such a wonderful job.

It was a bit frustrating to not have an actual Zoom class in a set time. It was just a "work at your own pace" however this class was fairly simple to do on my own. Erick always seemed excited about the topics he spoke about which was nice because it didn't seem like he was going through the motions.
